Farmington Mar. 1841

Dear A & I feel anxious to hear respecting Woodbridge having heard nothing since you wrote Col. Wadsworth Is his health of body & mind such as that in the opinion of yourself & Dr Bell that it would be on the whole advisable to remove him from the Institute at the end of the quarter— Can he be conversed with freely respecting his situation as to his mind and Temporal affairs and the supposed causes which have produced the unhappy effects on his mind, without loosing a tolerable reasonable balance of the mind In fact think you can he manage the man, Would he wish to return here or What would suit Have you conversed with him on the subject of religion. as I trust he is a praying Child

Tell the Dr. I Wish he would be plain make known what he thinks is the worst of the case of Woodbridge Should have any mind to say any thing about his business as respects his Store Tell him his Brother George is managing the business Well Hard Times considered your Mother has been taken quite ill With her old complaint pain in the side accompanied with high fever but is now better & hopefully geting up again, must come to a close after enquiring & how does Mrs Phelps Ada & Edwin & the New year pledge yours truly Augustus Bodwell

A B Wish you would enquire & find out the expense for the time Woodbridge has been there up to the end of the first quarter & Dist Saxon & Oakley, give my love to Woodbridge in particular all of our friends pulpon him must, I thank Dr Bell for the report of the Institute it is a valuable report
